Chardonnay of the Month

$9.99

Some of you have discovered this Chardonnay as it seems to fly out of here month after month. This is a wine made by Michael Pozzan winery located in Oakville, in the Napa Valley. Michael, and his wife MaryAnn, are responsible for three labels: Dante, Annabella, and Michael Pozzan wines. Natives to the San Francisco Bay area, Michael's family has been making wine since the 1800's. His Grandfather owned 35 acres of vineyards in Sonoma after World War II, and grew Zinfandels for other wine makers. In 1991 Michael and Mary Ann founded their winery and started making premium wines for their labels. The Annabella Chardonnay is made from fruit sourced out of Sonoma. I thought this would be the perfect Chardonnay for the start of Spring because it has a medium body with a rich concentration of ripe apples, pears, and tropical fruits. There's a touch of spice and vanilla on the nose and the mouth has a slight creamy texture that just makes it a delightful aperitif, or with light Spring dishes. Grilled salmon, or chicken, or maybe some delicate cheeses, and you have the perfect dinner party. Normally this is only one dollar more, the Pozzan family wants everyone to enjoy the value of this wine. We've just beefed up the value this month. I can't wait to have this with grilled asparagus.

This Month.....

- Great Kosher wines from New Zealand, Israel, France, and the U.S. (Passover doesn't have to be Concord grapes)
- Displays will be grouped by what foods they compliment (pairing food and wine will be a no-brainer)
- The Spanish wine section has expanded! There are some gorgeous bargains there.

Drink of the Month

Peach and Prosecco Ice
Perfect for a Spring brunch!

3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup hot water
1/4 cup orange juice
1- 16 oz. bag frozen sliced peaches, thawed with juices reserved
1 cup chilled Prosecco

Stir first three ingredients into a bowl until sugar dissolves. Blend peaches and reserved-peach juices in processor until peaches are finely chopped. With the processor running, gradually pour in sugar syrup. Process until smooth. Add Prosecco and blend well. Transfer mixture to container. Cover and freeze until firm, at least 3 hours. (Can be made 2 days ahead—keep frozen).

To serve: scoop into flutes and top with Prosecco. Makes about 4 cups.

Bourbon Glazed Ham

Try out something different for your Easter dinner

1/2 cup fresh apple juice
1 3/4 cups packed browned sugar
1/4 cup light molasses
1 whole bone in 16 to 18 pound ham

1/4 cup bourbon
1 cup toasted, finely ground pecans
3 tbsp dry mustard

Boil juice and bourbon in saucepan until reduced to 1/3 cup (about 6 minutes). Mix sugar, pecans, molasses, and mustard in a bowl. Add bourbon mixture and stir to form a thick paste. With the rack positioned in the lower third of the oven, preheat to 325. Line roasting pan with heavy-duty foil, and trim ham leaving only 1/4 inch of fat. Roast ham 10 minutes per pound, or 2 hours and 40 minutes for a 16 pound ham. A thermometer inserted into the roasts thickest part should read 130 to 135. Remove ham from oven and increase temperature to 425. Lightly score ham in a diamond pattern, and rub glaze thickly over top and sides. Return ham to oven and roast until glaze is thick and bubbly, at least 20 to 25 minutes. Let ham stand for at least 20 minutes before slicing. Serves 12.
